Is there a curfew?

Yes, as we are in an AONB all music is to be switched off at 11.30pm and the venue cleared by 12.30am

How many guests can the barns accommodate for the reception?

Large oak barn: 140 seated on trestles tables/110 on 5ft round tables

Milking barn.: 40 on 5ft round tables, (as this is adjacent to the oak barn it's possible to use this as a spill over for weddings with larger numbers of over 140).

Is there Wi-fi onsite?

Yes.

Do you provide catering, or can we bring our own?

As a dry hire venue you bring your own, we have a list of highly recommended tried and tested excellent local suppliers that get great reviews who are on our list. (www.ashleywoodfarmevents.co.uk/suppliers).

Do you provide a wedding co ordinator on the day?

We are always onsite if needed on the day and legally we have to be here for the ceremony so are very happy to be involved with this section of your day, but we do not get involved with any other part of the day. We have some excellent wedding co ordinators we can recommend who know the venue really well and can help your day to flow easily (www.ashleywoodfarmevents.co.uk/suppliers).

What is your policy on alcohol?

You bring your own alcohol and there's no corkage fee. If you would like to sell alcohol we have some great mobile bars who can provide this service (www.ashleywoodfarmevents.co.uk/suppliers).

Is there parking available for guests?

Yes, we have a large parking field onsite

Is camping available?

We can accommodate a limited number of camper vans and one or two tents up in the parking field.

What is the backup plan for outdoor weddings in case of bad weather?

We have a separate beautiful indoor heated barn called The Studio Barn in case of wet weather, this can be pre set if there are concerns about the weather.

Can we bring our dog?

Yes, dogs are welcome as long as they are kept on a lead as we have free range chickens and ducks.

Are candles allowed

Yes, tealights in jars or pillar candles in covered glass containers.

Do you charge corkage?

No.

Are fireworks or Chinese lanterns allowed

No, as we are near a stud and livestock.

Can we use confetti?

Yes, dried flower petals are welcome but nothing else please.

Is there cleaning available for the Sunday

You will need to arrange the clean down, we have a great team of cleaners you can book who will leave the venue as found (www.ashleywoodfarmevents.co.uk/suppliers)
